City Tattersalls Club

Dear Members

I hope you are having a wonderful Saturday!

As promised last week, below is a link that will take you straight into a general update on our Air Space Development, showing how we are planning to deliver a safe and exciting Interim Club facility for our members and guests during the period of construction and how we intend to reopen our Club post COVID -19, albeit with some very anticipated restrictions.

Happy Hour Drinks

Any excuse for a cocktail -

A 2005 article in The Courier-Journal gives credit to a private social club, called The Pendennis Club for making the very first old-fashioned in 1880.

James E. Pepper, bartender and esteemed bourbon aristocrat, was said to have invented the drink in Louisville, before he brought the recipe to the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel bar in New York City. This is supposedly where the old-fashioned was born..

I wonder when the first Old Fashioned was made at City Tatts?

Enjoy!

OLD FASHIONED

INGREDIENTS
60 ml Scotch whisky or bourbon
10 ml sugar syrup
1-2 dashes Angostura bitters
1 Orange peel

METHOD
Place the bourbon or whisky, sugar syrup and Angostura bitters in to a cocktail shaker.
Add the ice and stir for 15 - 20 seconds.
Strain the cocktail into a rocks glass over one large ice cube, or cubed ice.
Pare an orange peel and express the oils from the back of the peel over the old fashioned.
Rub the peel around the rim of the glass and hang the peel on side of the glass.
Enjoy!

Please drink responsibly

City Tattersalls Club, 125 Years In The Making

Did you know? The City Tattersalls Club library used to be located in the administration complex on the second floor.

The Club facility held over 5,000 fiction and non-fiction books, including popular authors such as Danielle Steel, Barbara Taylor-Bradford, John Grisham and Len Deighton. New books were frequently added to the shelves and regularly announced to Members in the Club magazine.

The library saw over 40 Members a day browsing through the books before making their selections and checking out.
